MEXICAN FEDERALS START OUT TO EXTERMINATE THE REBELS IN NORTH STATES

TWO FORCES DETERMINED TO SHOW NO QUARTER TO ANY REBELS THEY MAY CAPTURE

ADVISES TO EL PASO STATE
THAT 400 SOLDIES AND 200
CITIZENS HAVE BEEN KILLED
BY THE BANDITS.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 23 — Two
strong forces of Mexican federalists, composed of a force of infantry from Casa Grandes and 600 cavalrymen
from Jaurez, started out this morning to exterminate the bands of rebels pillaging, burning and murdering throughout the states in the northern part of Mexico.

The commanders of these troops declare they will give no quarter to any bandits or rebels captured.
Later fragmentary advices received in this city today state that a rebel band under General Ines Salazar has massacred the garrisons at Ascension and Guzman, killing 400
soldiers and 200 non-combatants.

The Orozco leader has 2,000 men under his command and it is stated that if Orozco can be captured he will be taken to the city of Mexico
and publicly executed as a warning.

Another Town is Destroyed—

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 23—The Ze-patist rebels today destroyed the town of Calimaya in southern Mexico. Most of the inhabitants fled before the town was destroyed. Not a building in the town was left intact.

Uncle Sam Now Determined—

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23—Confirmation that the rebels are advancing in northern Mexico and news that Americans and other foreigners are being placed in greater peril, was received at the state department today.

"The revolution seems to be growing," said Acting Secretary of State Wilson today, "but this department can take no further steps until President Taft returns January 1." He declined to say positively what steps will be taken, but remarked
"they will be sufficient to convince Mexico of the necessity of protecting the lives and property of foreigners."

Americans and federal soldiers are now entrenched at Cananea against 1,800 armed striking miners, who are attempting to drive them out.

GOVERNOR WILSON SITS WITH COURT OF PARDONS.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 23 — Governor Woodrow Wilson today sat
with the court of pardons, considering 200 applications for pardons and commutations. It is estimated that about 50 of these will be favorably acted upon. Each prisoner pardoned will receive an overcoat and a $5
bill. "This is an unpleasant duty," said Governor Wilson, "as these cases pull at the heart strings."

CRISIS IS REACHED IN CONFERENCE

TURKS REITERATE DEMAND
TO REVICTUAL ADRIANOPLE

STILL POSSIBLE UNITED STATES
MAY BE ASKED TO ACT AS
MEDIATOR BETWEEN TURKEY AND BALKANS.

LONDON, Dec. 23—The Turkish envoys precipitated a crisis in the peace conference today by reiterating their demands that Turkey be permitted to revictual Adrianople.
This demand was made on direct instructions from Constantinople.

It is believed the Turks are playing to gain time, but there is a feeling of pessimism among the delegates here. It is possible the United States may be asked to act
as a mediator between the Turks
and Balkan states.

The report is current today that England, France and Russia are bringing strong pressure to bear on Turkey in an effort to induce the Turks to surrender Adrianople to the Balkan states.

dia. The viceroy was wounded in the shoulder by the explosion of a bomb and one of his native servants was killed. The viceroy was hurried to a hospital and later it was stated that he would recover.
The bomb was thrown by a mem-

NEGRO SENTENCED TO HANG IS LYNCHED BY MOB TODAY

DECISION.

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 23 —
Simon Cadors, the negro convicted murderer of James Norman, a wealthy planter, was taken from the West Baton Rouge jail during the night and hanged to a telegraph pole.

The negro had been sentenced to pealed to the supreme court and he was being held in jail awaiting a decision. The swinging body was found this morning with an inscription: "The inevitable penalty."

NO CHANGE TOWARD JEWS IN RUSSIA

DUMA PRESIDENT SAYS THE
DISCRIMINATION IS UNWISE

ALSO GIVES IT AS HIS OPINION
AMERICAN TREATY WILL NOT BE RENEWED IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 23—President Rodzianko of the Russian Duma today declared that Russia can not change her attitude toward the American Jews in Russia, because to do so would be to discriminate against other countries.

President Rodzianko believes it will be a long time before the American treaty will be renewed. "If we can establish our own cotton industries, which is entirely possible," said Mr. Rodzianko, "and can create manufactories for our own implements, we will not have to depend upon the United States."

YOUNG NEGRO WHO HAS BEEN WORKING ABOUT THE STORE
IS LOCKED UP ON SUSPICION

WINDOW IN REAR PART OF THE STORE HAD BEEN LEFT UN-
LOCKED AND EASY ENTRANCE IS MADE BY THIEF.

Forcing an entrance through a back window, which had been carelessly left unlocked, a burglar broke into the Hankins' drug store some time last night, tapped the cash register for $40 and made a clean getaway, leaving no clue to his identity.

The announcement of the robbery
this morning gave rise to the belief that the gang of burglars which operated so successfully in Daytona in the early part of the season last winter, had returned and had already begun operations, but later in the day the proprietor, W. M.
Hankins, caused the arrest of a young negro by the name of Collis Harris.

The entrance to the store was made easy by the fact that the back window had been left unlocked,
and the supposition which caused the arrest of the negro, who had been working about the store, is that he had purposely left the window unfastened. The young black had been assisting in the work of putting the new fixtures in place, and the fact that the interior of the store had been in an unsettled condition for several days made it easy to overlook the window being unfastened.

With the window unfastened it was not a difficult matter for the burglar to get into the store, make his way to the cash register and remove what money had been left there. But the fact that nothing but cash was carried away shows the thief did not care to take any chances on being seen with bulky packages. Nothing else in the store was disturbed.

Included in the cash was 900 pennies, which had been left in the cash register, and the weight of these may have been one reason why the burglar did not take any valuable articles from the store.

Young Harris was taken in charge
by Marshal Melton and locked up in the city jail on suspicion.

Edward Fleischman and friend,
Jack Elliott, of Toronto, Canada, arrived Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. Fleischman's mother, Mrs. E. R. Fleischman, at her home on South Beach street.
They are looking over the real estate while here, as they are interested in the Robbins Limited Land agency of Canada, and are highly pleased with what they have seen of Daytona, the weather particularly appealing to them, as they left 18 inches of snow and very cold weather.

PRINCE MIGHT GET SHOT

But Mrs. Pattison Was Willing Her Husband Should Face the Burglar Alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Pattison awakened suddenly. Both thought the noise came from the basement.

"Better go and see what that is," said his wife uneasily. "It may be a burglar!"

"Oh, I hardly think it's a burglar," Pattison said as he turned over in bed.

"Yes," his wife returned, "but then it might be. Oughtn't you to go and investigate?"

Pattison never had gone in much for burglar chasing, but he wasn't afraid of a burglar. Or if he was he wasn't going to let his wife know it.

He arose from his bed and strode bravely forth, stubbing his great toe as he did so.

Then he paused to think what would be the best way to approach the burglar. He thought and thought and by and by a thought came out. He would call little Prince, Mrs. Pattison's pet dog, and have him go on ahead and bark an occasional bark.

"Then," thought Pattison, "if there really is a burglar in the basement like as not he'll run before I get there."

Prince up to that time didn't know there was a burglar around.

Pattison called the dog softly: "Heah, Prince," he whispered, "heah! heah!"

Mrs. Pattison heard the hoarse whisper for the dog. "Why, George," she exclaimed in alarm, "you're surely not going to take Prince down with you after the burglar!"

"Why, er—ah—the fact is," bluffed Pattison, "I thought if I took the dog along he might help me find the burglar."

"Yes," retorted his wife, "but Prince might get shot!"

The Jewel Box Alarm.

An ingenious invention, which will undoubtedly prove useful to the possessor of valuable jewels and trinkets, is the jewel box alarm, recently put on the market. In the bottom of the box is fixed the small instrument, which is to be electrically discharged by moving a small lever. The sound is made by means of a bell and clapper, resembling those found in a telephone. In the center of the box hangs a small pendulum. If the box is moved the pendulum swings, the circuit is closed and the alarm goes off. The noise resembles that of an alarm clock, and does not cease until it is shut off again.

The manufacture of wood pulp paper involves 23 separate operations from cutting down the trees to selling the product.

HAD NO PERMIT FOR DOGGIE

So the Woman Dropped Her Pet Off the Car and Resumed Her Seat.

The little woman with the laundry blue and gangrenous green flowers on her hat all scrambled up into a Wilton rug design got on the car carrying a dog. It was one of those aristocratic, foolish-looking dogs that couldn't overtake a Welsh rabbit.

"Got a permit for that dawg?" asked the conductor when he came around for the woman's fare.

"Haven't? Then you'll have to get off the car."

"Well, I'll not get off the car," retorted the woman.

"You can't stay on here with that dog unless you've got a dog permit," insisted the conductor.

The woman got up, dog under one arm, as if to get off. But as she rose she repeated: "I'll not get off. So there!"

Still, she walked to the rear platform as if in contradiction of her own assertion. The conductor was ready to signal the motorman to stop.

But the woman had declared she wasn't going to get off, and she intended to keep her word. She poised the dog carefully in her palms, tossed him off into the street, at the same time bidding him "Go home!"

Then she came back into the car and dropped languidly into her seat with a bored tilt to her face.

How to Be Immortal.

Only one-cell animals which have no differentiation are immortal and never grow old. Physical immortality, deathless youth is possible, but you must be an infusorian or a yeast plant to attain it, and one wouldn't even be a clam or a jellyfish for the price. The process has no limits any more than it has beginnings. Life is just that, one-third dying that two-thirds may live, whether it be the single cell or the body.—Dr. Woods Hutchinson in Hampton's.

Unusual Death.

To fall to death in a seething whirlpool was the fate of two Swiss lovers a few days ago. The couple were visiting the famous Handegg Falls near Melringen when a small bridge over the River Aare collapsed and they fell 240 feet into the whirlpool below.

Longfellow Married His Heroine.

Longfellow was one of America's writers who married a heroine of his story. His second wife was the heroine of "Hyperion." The tragedy of his life happened when she was burned to death in 1861.

Poor Mother Earth.

A bargain in a golf rig has decided one girl to go in for the ancient game at a resort famous for that sport.

CHRISTMAS ENTREMENTS.
WHEN in doubt what vegetables
 to serve with the Christmas dinner the suggestions given here may be helpful. There are few vegetables that do not go nicely with roast turkey.

Mashed Potatoes Browned.—Fill the dish you intend to serve the potatoes in with mashed potatoes and, after smoothing the top and sprinkling with good butter, put on the shelf of a hot oven until browned and then serve.
Glazed Sweet Potatoes.—For a dozen people use nine sweet potatoes of good size, four tablespoonsful of butter, a tablespoonful of sugar and a tablespoonful of water. Boil the potatoes fifty minutes; then take them from the fire and pare them. Cut them in halves lengthwise. Season with salt and place in a dripping pan flat side down. Put the sugar and water in a soup plate
 and stir until the sugar is dissolved.
 Now add the butter and stir over heat until this is melted. Baste the potatoes with this liquid and place the pan in a hot oven for twenty minutes. The potatoes should be brown and glossy
 when they come from the oven.

Some Creamed Vegetables.
Creamed Canned Corn.—Put a quart of canned corn in a saucepan; boil in its own liquor fifteen minutes; add half a teaspoonful of cream and a teaspoonful of butter; season with pepper and salt.
Creamed Lima Beans.—Soak dry lima beans in lukewarm water overnight;
 put in a saucepan, cover with boiling water, cook until tender, drain off the water; season with cream, butter, salt and pepper.

Creamed Turnips.—Pare turnips and cut in slices a quarter of an inch in thickness; then cut the slices in strips like a match. Boil these in salted water half an hour. Drain them, place them in a dish and cover with cream sauce made by melting in a small frying pan a tablespoonful of butter, adding to it a tablespoonful of flour, and stir until smooth, and then add a pint of milk. Stir it constantly until it boils; then season it with a teaspoonful of salt and a little pepper and pour it over the turnips.

Appetizing Dishes.
Stewed Tomatoes.—Open a can of tomatoes, put in a saucepan and set on the back of the stove. Cook an hour, add a teaspoonful of bread crumbs, two ounces of butter, with salt and pepper
 Cook half an hour longer.
Cold Slaw.—Shave cabbage into shreds, mix a well beaten raw egg in half a teaspoonful of condensed milk,
 add a teaspoonful of vinegar; boil till it thickens. Pour this mixture over the cabbage. Sprinkle with salt.

STATE
HAPPENINGS
 News from Fair Florida Briefly Told

While trimming a magnolia tree at Martin Sullivan's residence, corner of Gregory and Baylen streets, in Pensacola, Wm. W. Grant, about 70 years of age, fell from the tree, a distance of about 15 feet and broke his neck.

The Palatka board of trade is pushing a movement for the establishment of a municipal light and power plant in that city. A committee has been appointed to investigate the conditions in Florida
 towns having municipal ownership.

Dr. Hulley is spending a few weeks in the north in the interests of Stetson university. He will visit several cities in the north and east, returning sometime in January. While in the north the doctor will fill a date with the Carnegie corporation to present Stetson's needs of endowment,
 having been summoned by the corporation for that purpose.

In a short time after she had held conversation with her divorced husband, Mrs. Ruby Patrick Brado shot and killed herself in an office in St. Petersburg. She fired one shot from a revolver, the ball passing through her head and lodging in the wall of the office. The reason for the suicidal act is not apparent.

The trial of Albert V. Hough at Inverness for the murder of his wife at Clearmont, Lake county, June 1, which has just resulted in a jury disagreement after two weeks
 trial, has been one of the most expensive of the kind ever held in the state. A change of venue from Lake county to Inverness was granted because of the feeling against Hough in his home county.

In Jim Boyett, one of Lee county's hunting guides, Fort Myers has the champion varmint exterminator of Florida. On one trip he killed a she bear and brought her cubs in alive,
 and killed a ten-foot panther and five wild cats, besides a large rattlesnake having 21 rattles. The panther was killed in the neighborhood of Gum Swamp, and was in the top of an oak tree when discovered and shot.

"Anyone who says that the Everglades cannot be drained and that garden truck and other things cannot be grown on them ought to be arrested," declared Chief of Police H. R. Ferguson of Miami, when he returned from a trip up the canal
 from Fort Lauderdale past the famous Davie farm to the Royal Glade tract, which, in the chief's opinion,
 is destined to become as famous.

By means of a compromise effected at Tallahassee, a suit which has been in litigation for some time,
 was settled and the state of Florida
 saved many thousands of acres of land.
 This was the suit of the Florida
 East Coast railway company vs. the Trustees of the Internal Improvement
 Fund, the Florida Coast Line Canal and Transportation company and Bion Barnett, involving about 2,000,
 000 acres of land. The Florida East Coast Railway company claimed this land by reason of legislative grants for the construction of its lines and the lines constituting the company.
 According to the terms of the compromise the trustees are to deed to the railway company 250,000 acres of land, 200,000 acres of which is in the extreme southern portion of the Everglades, and the remaining 50,000
 situated north of Fort Lauderdale.
 Nothing has as yet been done in regard to the offer of the English capitalists, through Cromwell Gibbons, to purchase the Everglades for $8,000,000.

WEST FLORIDA
IS BOOSTING
NEW STATE
WEST STATE PEOPLE SAY
PENINSULA GETS BENEFITS

GIVE REASONS WHY THE STATE SHOULD BE DIVIDED WITH THE
AUCILLA RIVER AS THE LINE OF DIVISION.

From Tallahassee is being sent out an interesting pamphlet telling some reasons and facts for the proposed new state of West Florida, and containing a synopsis of the organization of the West Florida Chamber of Commerce, a corporation which has as one of its main objects the advancement of the proposition to form separate state of all that part of Florida
 west of the Aucilla river.

Throughout the state much interest has been awakened in the movement for a new state for the strip which extends along the north side of the Gulf of Mexico. The reasons for the formation of the new state are many, and as outlined in a recent meeting of the West Florida Chamber of Commerce are in part:

That the trade and other interests are disassociated from those of the peninsula.
 That two-sevenths of 28 per cent of the population of the state, which this section has, obtains but one-sixth of 16 per cent of the United States congressional representation.

That "West Florida" retains the name and will have a map of her own.
 That the population is more than that of four other states in the union.

That the area is greater than that
 of eight states.
 That the seacoast is longer than that of 13 seacoast states.

That the extremities in no
 state in the union are so far separated as the present state of Florida.

That the present annual revenue of $823,680 is sufficient to support a
 new state.

That new state buildings for the peninsula will be desirable, and that the old state buildings at Tallahassee will serve the new state administration admirably.

That the Everglades are being developed and sold for the benefit of the peninsula.

That the south representation in the senate would be increased by two,
 and West Florida would be a democratic state.
 The facts regarding the proposed new state of Florida as tabulated by Leland J. Henderson, member of the organization committee of the West Florida Chamber of Commerce which speak for the qualifications which the proposed territory possess and which prove it to be a pretentious section
 enough for a separate government, includes the fact that there are in it 13 counties with 11,350 square miles and a population of 207,079, according to the 1910 census; 165 staute miles of coast line; 12 bays, three harbors of 40 feet in depth; eight streams of 750 miles navigable length 200 miles of bays; 77 per cent in for-

But Not in the Way He Had Expected or Desired.

The ferry dock was crowded with weary homeseekers when through the crowd rushed a man—hot, excited, in-den to the chin with bundles of every shape and size. He sprinted down the pier, his eyes fixed on a ferryboat only two or three feet out from the pier.
 He paused but an instant on the string-piece, and then, cheered on by the crowd, he made a flying leap across the intervening stretch of water and landed safely on the deck. A fat man happened to be standing on the exact spot on which he struck, and they both went down with a resounding crash.
 When the arriving man had somewhat recovered his breath he apologized to the fat man. "I hope I didn't hurt you," he said. "I am sorry. But, anyway, I caught the boat!"
 "But, you idiot," said the fat man,
 "the boat was coming in!"

He Wished For Her.

They were dining in a restaurant

"You see," he explained as he show-

 have his or her wish gratified."

"But I don't know what to wish for," she protested.

"Oh, you can think of something,"
 he said.

"No, I can't," she replied. "I can't think of anything I want very much."
 "Well, I'll wish for you," he exclaimed.

"Will you, really?" she asked.
 "Yes."

"Well, then, there's no use fooling
 with the old wishbone," she interrupted, with a glad smile. "You can have me!"—Fun Magazine.

RED CEDAR FOR BULDINGS

Some of This Excellent Material Is Estimated to Be Nearly Four Thousand Years Old.

It will surprise many to know that they have in their homes material estimated to be 4,000 years old. If the shingles or interior finish is red cedar or if you have a red cedar chest it is possible that the wood antedates the history of this country by thousands of years, says the Cleveland Leader.

A Cleveland man is credited with bringing the first red cedar into this section. W. A. Geist, on a western trip several years ago, was attracted by the red cedar forests at Port Angelus, Wash. He established a mill there and began shipping the cedar to the eastern market. Formerly the southern cedar was used in great quantities, but it is the claim of Mr. Geist that the product from the Pacific coast is growing in favor and the demand for it is increasing.

It is a most durable wood and its use in a home guarantees that moths and other troublesome insects will not enter. It is used for wainscoting, mantels, cupboards, cabinets and especially for chests in which to store furs and clothing. Mr. Geist exhibits a quantity of red cedar cut from a tree he estimates to be at least 3700 years of age. Three large cedars were found growing from a fallen log which was five and one-half feet in diameter. The largest of the three trees growing from the fallen tree was ten and one-half feet in diameter. By counting the rings in both trees indicates that the fallen tree, still sound, is nearing its four thousandth birthday.

Mr. Geist is an expert upon red cedar and goes in for the history of the wonderful trees of Washington and other coast states as a biographer would the data upon the life of some famous man. He surrounds a bolt of shingle cedar with an interesting story, which goes back to the misty ages and something like reverence grows within the listener for this venerable work of nature.

Unquestionably the red cedar is the oldest material used in the construction of the home and few materials will outwear it, it being nearly indestructible except by fire.

Jim's Wife.

After the report had been current for a week that Jim's wife, whom Jim had met and married and was still secluding in Chicago, was ugly as sin, a friend who had Jim's interests at heart, ran down the author of the rumor with the intention of making her retract.

"How do you know she is ugly?" he asked. "Have you ever seen her?"

"No," said the experienced gossip. "I never have, neither have I seen her picture, nor anybody who has seen either her or her picture, but I know she is ugly, because I had it straight from a person who lives in Chicago that when she ordered a dozen pictures taken just a while before the wedding the photographer made her pay in advance, and a photographer never does that unless the subject is so ugly that she is apt to be discouraged when she sees the pictures and refuse to pay for them on the ground that he hasn't done good work. If you don't believe me ask any photographer."

But Jim's champion let the matter drop.—New York Times.

For Those Who Hear Not.

The hallboy had fairly split his throat shouting directions to deaf persons who had called to see Mr. Schwartz. Mr. Schwartz lived in the fourth floor rear, right-hand apartment, through the long hall and up the back stairs. It took a good deal of shouting to make some folks understand that.

"I never saw so many deaf people in my life," said the boy. "What on earth are they all running up to Schwartz's for?"

"Mr. Schwartz has advertised a deaf man's phonograph for sale," said a neighbor. "He is very hard of hearing. The phonograph was made especially for him. It has an unusually loud tone. Nobody but the hard-of-hearing can live with such entertainment. Mr. Schwartz, to save trouble, has advertised for a deaf purchaser."

Naturally Filtered Water.

An English naturalist, who has explored the mountain ranges of the Malay peninsula, reports that in several species of bamboo the hollow internodes—the parts of the stems between the joints—are stored with large quantities of naturally filtered water. He also discovered two species of ferns, growing on trees whose thick, fleshy stems are filled with galleries tunneled by ants, the ferns thus forming living nests for the ants.

Woman's World

Miss La Bouisse, Pilot of Social Bureau.

MISS LA BOUISSE.

Everything from the etiquette of leaving cards down to advice on how to entertain is in the prospectus of a social bureau recently opened at the national capital.

The leader of the new enterprise is a Washington matron of much social experience, and the working head or pilot of the bureau is Miss La Bouisse.

The bureau will make a specialty of "furnishing chaperons, taking charge of entertainments, deciding vexed questions of precedence at semi-official functions and giving advice on ward robes."

Not the least of its tasks is to be that of taking charge of residences during absences of owners from the Capital City.

This bureau fills a long felt want for social climbers.

A Pension Roll For Mothers.

Mrs. Mabel Potter Daggett, describing in the World's Work the pensioning of destitute mothers, tells of the valuable experiments that several of the states are already putting to the test.

Two states, Missouri and Illinois, in 1911 put motherhood regularly on the payroll. The court awards what is called a pension to any mother of good character who needs such assistance properly to bring up her children. Hitherto it has been the custom when a home failed in the struggle for existence for the court to place such children in an institution. This new revelation of sociology, however, says that a child's mother, if she is the right sort of woman, is God's own institution for its upbringing.

The Cook county juvenile court in the city of Chicago last summer had some 327 mothers, with an aggregate of 1,200 children, cared for on this plan. It is costing the community an average of $5.75 per month per child as against $10 per month per child under the old institutional plan. It will cost the state of Illinois this year about $100,000. The state authorities have said they don't care if it goes to $500,000. The contract with the mothers will be cheap at that, for it is counted on to diminish the bill for crime that is now costing Cook county alone $6,000,000 a year.

Notes About Women.

The Portuguese government has appointed a woman subinspector of public health in Oporto. This is the first time that such a position has been held by a woman in Portugal. The government has also appointed a woman as professor ordinary of the Society of Philologia Germanica at the universities of Lisbon and Coimbra in recognition of her "illustrious services to literature."

By a decree of the Spanish government women will in future be admitted to all universities in Spain on the same terms as men and will be entitled to follow any profession for which the university diploma qualifies them.

For the first time in history a woman appeared in an official capacity in the law courts of Australia when the daughter of Justice Isaacs took her seat in the high court of Australia the other day as her father's associate. On her devoted the duty of impaneling the jury, and much favorable comment has been made on the quiet and dignified way in which she performed her task. Miss Isaacs is said to be a student of unusual ability, and a brilliant career is prophesied for her.

Italian Women Have Suffrage Club.

The new woman suffrage club recently opened in Rome has established a free employment bureau for the benefit of Italian working women. In making this departure the club is carrying out the wishes of the late Donna Giacinta Martini, who was president for many years of the Italian Woman Suffrage association. All her life Donna Martini worked for the betterment of the conditions of working women, and she devoted a large part of her fortune to this end.

Revival of Braid.

The revival of braid is a great factor in the evolution of this year's frocks. Not only does it add a desirable note of solidity and smartness so essential to winter clothes, but, further, it is strongly suggestive of hard wearing properties. Braid again—in very fine, silky makes—is admirable as a trimming for the nixon bodice of the three piece costume.

Historic Blackguards

Blackbeard, Pirate "for Revenue Only"

In a Virginia family a gruesome heirloom is still cherished. It is a huge drinking cup, barred with silver and resting on a silver base. The cup itself is made of a polished human skull. BLACKBEARD The skull of Blackbeard, the pirate. Nor was Blackbeard's head less fantastic in life than it is in death. He wore an immense beard, jet black, braided and tied into a dozen fantastic strands. And each strand was fastened with a gaudy ribbon. To add to his ferociously ludicrous appearance he had all his teeth blackened and filed to a sharp point. But though in dress and shape he looked like a comic opera brigand, there the comic opera element ended. He was a shrewd business man—a pirate "for revenue only."

Blackbeard's real name was Edward Teach (or "Thatch"). He was born in England in the last part of the seventeenth century, and is said to have shipped as a youth aboard a privateer vessel bound for the West Indies during the war of the "Spanish Succession." Privateering in those days was not very different from piracy. It was almost as profitable and it had the advantage of being strictly legal.

The blackguard with the fewest scruples, least conscience and greatest store of brutal courage, craftiness and ferocity was certain of quick promotion among the sea rangers—unless he was first killed. And Blackbeard had all these qualities. He had also a daredevil manner, which (coupled with his odd dress and odder face) led many people to believe him insane. But he seems never to have been too roaring crazy to keep an eye on every "business" chance that came his way.

In 1713 peace was declared and the privateers found themselves out of work. This did not trouble Blackbeard. From privateering to piracy was the shortest kind of step. He turned pirate. For a year or so nothing was heard from him by the outside world. But in 1716 he all at once became famous—or infamous. In his armed sloop Queen Anne's Revenge (at the head of a murderous crew that feared nothing but himself) he began ravaging the Spanish Main.

Then, leaving that happy hunting ground to the freebooter folk, Blackbeard headed northward and scoured the Virginia and Carolina coasts, fighting, capturing, pillaging, burning. For two years he kept this up, eluding capture and making his name a terror to planters and sailors alike. Then, in June, 1718, Queen Anne's Revenge was wrecked off the North Carolina coast. Blackbeard, instead of fighting on land or waiting to be captured, surrendered himself and 30 of his best men to Gov. Charles Eden of North Carolina. The pirate, in spite of his eccentricities, was a shrewd judge of human nature. He had good reason to know what manner of man Eden was. He went to the governor, secured from him a royal pardon and calmly proposed a business partnership. It was arranged between them that Blackbeard was to go back to his pleasant piratical labors and that Eden (in return for a fair percentage of the plunder) should protect him from legal interference.

This was a safe and profitable arrangement for both. For a few months it prospered finely. But such a state of affairs aroused sharp comment from the planters on whose rich estates Blackbeard was now levying a heavy toll. One local legislator, Edward Mosley, complained publicly that while Eden could easily raise an armed force to arrest honest men, he did not seem able to do anything toward capturing Blackbeard. Eden punished this plain speech by fining Mosley $500 and by prohibiting him from holding office for three years.

But the people's discontent could not be so easily silenced. The colonists, unable to stir their own governor into action, appealed to Gov. Spotswood of Virginia. Spotswood was a very different sort from the profit-loving Eden. He promptly fitted up two ships and, with Lieut. Robert Maynard in command, sent them against the pirate.

The Virginian force found Blackbeard in Pamlico bay on November 18, 1718. A fierce battle ensued. Blackbeard knew what defeat would mean to him, so he ordered one of his men to stand by the powder magazine with a lighted match and to blow up friends and enemies alike at a signal from him. But the signal was not given. For in the thick of the turmoil Blackbeard and Maynard met on deck in a hand-to-hand fight. It was a duel whose fame lived long in Virginia—this deadly sword clash between a dapper young officer and a giant pirate. At length skill in swordsmanship prevailed against mere savage strength, and a blow of Maynard's cutlass stretched Blackbeard dead on his own deck. The career of America's most picturesque sea rover was at an end. The survivors of the crew surrendered. Thirteen of them were hanged. And coast dwellers and mariners alike breathed easier.

FEMALE DIVERS OF JAPAN

Women Who Begin at 13 to Search for Pearls in the Coast Waters.

The pearl divers of Japan are women. Along the coast of the Bay of Ago and the Bay of Kokasho the thirteen and fourteen-year-old girls, after they have finished their primary school work, go to sea and learn to dive.

They are in the water and learn to swim almost from babyhood and spend most of their time in the water except in the coldest season, from the end of December to the beginning of February. Even during the most inclement of seasons they sometimes dive for pearls. They wear a special dress, white in derwear and the hair twisted up into a hard knot. The eyes are protected by glasses to prevent the entrance of water. Tubs are suspended from the waist. A boat in command of a man is assigned to every five or ten women divers to carry them to and from the fishing grounds.

When the divers arrive on the grounds they leap into the water at once and begin to gather oysters at the bottom. The oysters are dropped into tubs suspended from their waists. When the vessels are filled the divers are raised to the surface and jump into the boats. They dive to a depth of from five to thirty fathoms without any special apparatus and retain their breath from one to three minutes.

Their ages vary from thirteen to forty years and between twenty-five and thirty-five they are at their prime.—Oriental Review

TAX COLLECTORS ORDERED TO GET AUTO LICENSES

STATE COMPTROLLER KNOTT CALLS ATTENTION OF COLLECTORS TO RECENT DECISION OF SUPREME COURT.

There is no longer any question about the legal right of tax collectors in the state of Florida to collect the automobile license tax, the following communication having been sent by Comptroller W. V. Knott to all the county tax collectors in the state:

"Gentlemen—In response to many inquiries, and as a matter of information, you are advised that on December 3, 1912, the supreme court of the state of Florida rendered an opinion in the case of the state of Florida, plaintiff in error vs. Bruce Neff, defendant in error, upholding the constitutionality of the Act of 1911, Chapter 6212 of the laws of Florida, entitled 'An act to license automobiles and other motor-driven vehicles using the public roads or highways in the state of Florida, either for hire or otherwise,' and that under this decision you have full power to enforce the collection of such license taxes as may have, or shall, become due under the provisions of said Act.

"Very truly yours,
"W. V. KNOTT,

THE COLUMBIAN QUARTET AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Columbian quartet, the second number of the Lyceum course being given at the First M. E. church, appeared Saturday evening and furnished one of the most pleasing musical entertainments that has ever been presented to the public of this city.

Three of the members of the quartet are blind and their manipulation of some of the musical instruments was in itself wonderful, while their training, skill and harmony were of the highest order.

The quartet was introduced by Rev. D. H. Rutter, pastor of the church, who spoke of the members in the most complimentary terms as earnest Christian gentlemen and musicians of unusual skill. He stated that twice before he had heard them in his churches in the north and was delighted to again meet them here. He further stated that the quartet would sing at the church services next day and took the opportunity to announce that the third number of the Lyceum course would be given January 3, when Ralph Madden would deliver his humorous lecture, "The Road to Laughter Town."

The church was well filled, though not crowded, and the audience showed a thorough appreciation of the musical treat given by the quartet in the hearty applause which followed each number of the program which included both instrumental and vocal solos and duets as well as the quartet singing.

There was no intermission, but a continuous hour and a half of delightful music, with a touch of humor at times, and all so intensely interesting that the singing of "Good Night," by the quartet came as a surprise to the audience.

The Scrap Book

His Test of the Antique.
John B. Herreshoff, the blind yacht builder of Bristol, R. I., was a guest at a large party in Bristol when the hostess was proudly displaying a cabinet just received from an antique shop in New York and bought for $700 as a product of the year 1710. It was observed by one of the other guests that Herreshoff alone refrained from favorable comment, although the old man had examined the cabinet by his delicate touch. Finding an opportunity, the man approached Herreshoff and asked him the reason for his silence. Herreshoff chuckled. "I'll let you into a secret if you don't breathe a word of it to the good Mrs. B.," he said. The promise having been given, Herreshoff led the way with his unerring directness to the cabinet, and, extracting a drawer, he ran the tips of his fingers lightly over the bottom and chuckled again: "Circular saws in 1710? Poor Mrs. B."

"Goodby."
We say it for an hour or for years;
We say it smiling, say it choked with tears;
We say it coldly, say it with a kiss,
And yet we have no other word than this—
"Goodby!"

We have no dearer word for our heart's friend,
For him who journeys to the world's far end
And scars our soul with going. Thus we say,
As unto him who steps but o'er the way,
"Goodby!"

Alike to those we love and those we hate
We say no more at parting. At life's gate
To him who passes out beyond earth's sight
We cry, as to the wanderer for a night,
"Goodby!"

—Grace Denio Litchfield.

Hard to Catch Up.
Two Silesians seated in a music hall began to argue about the music of Wagner. The argument as it progressed grew heated. The upshot was that the younger challenged the older Silesian to a duel. But the older Silesian declined to fight.

"No, no," he said. "I refuse to meet you. The risks are not equal. You, you see, are a bachelor, whereas I am a married man with three children. I'll tell you what to do. Go get married and wait till you're a family as large as mine. Then when our risks are alike come and challenge me again."

The younger man complied. He married. Three years passed, and one day three years later he went, accompanied by a nursemaid, to his opponent's home.

"Here I am," he said fiercely. "My wife is at home. In this coach are my three children. Now for the duel."

But the older man shook his head.

"Not yet awhile," he said. "I have five now."

Shut Her Up.
In every large hotel the chambermaids are always ready and willing to perform a personal service for the sake of the customary tip that accompanies it. Remembering this, the woman tourist who was stopping at a famous hotel in Cairo rang at last for assistance after vainly struggling for fifteen minutes with the intricacies of the rear fastenings of her gown. To her dismay, one of the Arab porters responded to her ring.

"Madame requires something?" His voice was soft and sweetly modulated.

"Yes. Please send up one of the maids to hook my dress."

"Ah, if that is all," He bowed and waved a deprecating hand. "Madame desires to be shut up? I can shut her up."

Which he did.

Why He Didn't Like Pistols.
Discussing pistols as duelling weapons, a Paris paper sought the views of a man who had the reputation of an expert on the field of honor. He at once began to rail at duels with pistols. He could not bear even to speak of them. The fact was that he had once himself at an encounter of that kind received a ball in the shoulder.

"Then you disapprove of them simply because you were defeated?"

"Why, I was not defeated."

"What?"

"No; I was a second. You may well believe that I promised myself never to mix again in affairs of that sort. However, one day I had to accompany a friend on the field. He had asked it of me as a personal favor. I could not refuse. But I insisted upon one condition."

"What was that?"

"That I should climb a tree during the firing."

"A good scheme."

"You think so? Well, I was wounded again. My friend fired in the air."

Real Kind of Her.

"I remember hearing," says Lady Dorothy Nevill in her reminiscences, "of a very good natured lady who was always helping a relative of hers who was very extravagant. Having one summer lent this feather brained creature a considerable sum of money, what was her surprise at the end of the season to be applied to again in order that what were described as some pressing debts might be settled."

"I am very sorry," said the kind hearted lady, "but I can't possibly help you again just now. In order to lend you that money some time ago I was forced to go without a motor this season."

"Dear me," was the reply. "If I had only known that I should have been delighted to lend you mine."

HOME DRESSMAKING.

The Burnoose Drapery Easy to Manage.

GOWN OF BLUE BROCADED CRAPE.

Even the home dressmaker can make a graceful skirt if the burnoose drapery is used—that is, the drapery which is effected by drooping doubled over loops of the material from the belt.

In this afternoon gown of navy blue brocade crape the effect of the burnoose drapery is very good. A petticoat of plaited satin, over which the brocade crape is draped, is short enough to show the buttoned boots of black satin.

DOT VEILS ENRICH OCULISTS.

Closely Woven Network Also Is Cause of Eye Trouble.

"Every dot in a woman's veil is worth a dollar to the oculist," an old member of the profession declares, "and there is no doubt that the modern veil, with its intricate figuring and bold designs, is far more harmful than the old time veil, which was either plain or adorned with small spots."

"A closely woven network offers a considerable barrier to evaporation, and the surrounding of the skin of the face with material which hinders the proper ventilation of the eyes and skin produces a certain amount of trouble. Thus all conditions of eczema or skin irritation which women complain of are due to the heated condition of the eye brought about by the veil."

"Associated with the watering there are redness of the eyes and a curious oversensitiveness to light. Again, a veil which is twisted tightly under the chin compresses the veins of the face, and this intensifies any tendency to skin irritation and may account by impeding the circulation for woman's chief dread in life, a red nose."

Kriss Kringle Centerpiece.

Take a box suitable for the table to be used. Cover the box with cotton batting and sprinkle with diamond dust to represent snow. Set on the box a good representation of Santa Claus driving reindeer (this can be purchased at any toyshop. The sleigh may be filled with small favors).

For a Christmas tree centerpiece place a small Christmas tree in the center of the table and bank around it apples, oranges, grapes and nuts. This tree may be arranged Christmas eve and serve as a table decoration as well as a place for the gifts, or it may be trimmed with small tapers and other usual trimmings and serve as decoration only.

Individual Christmas trees may be placed in tiny flowerpots covered with green paper and set at each place. These may hold gifts or favors for each person. Small tapers are fastened to each tree and furnish the light during the after dinner story telling.

When Buying Furs.

The woman who must economize buys her furs very carefully. She sees to it that the skin is soft and pliable, which means properly dressed, and that the fur is the kind coming in and not just going out. Most furs last three years in favor, and at present the brown furs are "coming in." Fox, skunk, brown marten, mink, bear and wolf are very fashionable, and there is a special craze for the brilliant red fox which Poirer has raised to high favor. This pelt is rather conspicuous, and a woman who can spend little, but must dress well, selects a more quiet variety of fur. Opussum is an attractive pelt that is also very durable. The set of opussum furs of the season shows a smart toque with an embroidered oriental ornament as well as a flat muff and a big neckpiece made of two animal skins, one lapping over the other.

When Caught in a Shower.

If your hat gets wet in a sudden shower take it off and turn it upside down to dry. The flowers and foliage will then remain in their upright position.

FOLLY OF PREACHING TO THE WORLDLY-WISE

Why Should God's Ministers
Preach While Earthly Rulers Command?

Preaching Thus Serves the Divine Purpose During This Age—In the Coming Age of Messiah's Kingdom It Will Be Different—The Law Shall Go Forth and Transgressors Shall Receive Corrective Punishments.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 22.—Pastor Russell spoke here today. His text for the occasion was: "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."—1 Corinthians i. 21. Pastor Russell said that there is a wide difference between foolish preaching and "the foolishness of preaching."

In the Church, the Gospel has the right of way. If some claim that people no longer attend Divine service, there are three reasons why they will not. (1) During the Dark Ages the Church lost the Gospel, and few Christians have recovered it. Gospel signifies good tidings, a message of joy; but the message handed down from the Dark Ages has been bad tidings of great misery for nearly all mankind. No wonder the majority reject this horrible presentation of the creeds. Mankind have trials enough in the present life, and need encouragement to hope for better things hereafter.

(2) Responding to the growth of intelligence, ministers have ceased to preach eternal misery for all but the "very elect." Nearly all ministers lost in the theological seminaries their faith in the Bible as the inspired Word of God, and accepted the findings of unbelief—Higher Criticism. So they preach those things which they ought not to preach, and leave unpreached those things which they ought to preach. How can such ministers avoid "foolish preaching?"

(3) Having undermined faith in the Bible, these ministers mix their higher critical, evolutionary views with diluted morality, and serve this instead of the Gospel. Whoever thinks such preaching will convert from sin and unbelief to faith in God is deceived. The Gospel of Christ is glad tidings. Jesus died to bring mankind into harmony with God. Nothing is said about an eternity of torture at the hands of fire-proof demons—nothing to discredit the Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power of God. It acknowledges that mankind are under a just penalty—death, but sets before them a glorious hope of a coming time when the curse of death will be removed. According to the Scriptures, a New Day is dawning a glorious prospect for all desiring to come into harmony with God, but stripes upon wilful sinners.

The True Gospel includes the Message that during this Age God is selecting a Church, to be joint-heirs with our Lord in the honorable work of blessing all the families of the earth. The number who attain this position is a Little Flock, to whom it is the Father's good pleasure to give the Kingdom.

Is Gospel Preaching Logical?
Pastor Russell said that St. Paul refers to preaching the Gospel as "foolishness," not in his own estimation, but in that of the worldly-wise. That a man of Jesus' ability should go about with a few disciples, performing some miracles and inviting chiefly the poor to follow Him, seems foolish to the world. They ask, Why did He not make friends with Scribes, Pharisees and Doctors of the Law, whose influence with the people would have counted?

In reply, he asked, If our Lord had done thus, who would have crucified Him? How would God's Plan have been carried out? It is well for the world that Jesus did not follow the suggestions of worldly wisdom. Truly, the Wisdom of God is foolishness with the world, even as worldly wisdom is foolishness with God.

From the world's standpoint, it seems foolish for God to invite any to serve Him—for an all-powerful God to entreat where He could compel obedience. Earthly kings enforce their commands; in fact, every one executes his own will. The Bible explains, however, that God seeks those to worship Him who do so in spirit and in truth. Therefore these must be given opportunity to disobey, if they choose to do so; and persecutions, tribulations and attacks from the world, the flesh and the devil are permitted to test them.

All of God's people are ordained to preach. The begetting influence of the Holy Spirit is the only ordination necessary, and without it no one has Divine authority to preach. God's Word makes no division of His people into clergy and laity. Let us declare God's message in its purity and simplicity. Let us not be disappointed that the worldly-wise consider it foolishness, and that it brings odium, as it did upon the Lord and His Apostles.

God will find the "peculiar people" whom He seeks. As Messiah's associates they will "declare the decree." All mankind shall be brought to a knowledge of the Truth, the incorrigible destroyed, and every knee bow and every tongue confess, to God's glory.

INTERESTING DRIVES AND DRIVES POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent bathing, north for 10 miles and south for 10 miles to Mosquito Inlet and Government lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surfaced road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 1 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—a Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona, is reached by boat or by motor to the ocean beach.

MAMMOTH TREE—4 miles from Daytona; an abnormally large tree, reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona, the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city, reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

TOMOKA RIVER—The scenic stream of Florida; reached by excursion boats which leave Daytona daily and run to the navigable head of the stream, 26 miles from the city. Generally a number of alligators may be seen in their native haunts. This is a trip no tourist should miss.

DELEON SPRINGS, 28 miles from Daytona; mammoth spring that throws out thousands of gallons of water a minute; a delightful bathing pool, and picturesque scenery. Spring is situated in an old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles south of New Smyrna; several orange groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona; here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—26 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Pottery and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard-surfaced road; or the trip one way may be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you; there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

NEW MEMBERS OF CONGRESS
LEARN ROPESMEN WHO WILL SERVE FIRST
TERMS SEE HOUSE WORKINGTAKING IT FOR GRANTED TARIFF
WILL OCCUPY MOST OF TIME
THEY STUDY THE QUESTION
THOROUGHLY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23—Several of the men who will begin their initial terms as members of the house of representatives when the special session of the 63rd congress convenes in April, 1913, spent a couple of weeks here recently for the purpose of learning through personal observation and inspection just how business is done at the national capital.

Believing that the tariff question will monopolize the center of the stage in the next house, these new congressmen devoted most of the time during their visit to the collection of information bearing on the tariff. Not only did they gather the usual stock of knowledge—reports, comparative tables, court decisions, etc.—but they also wandered into nooks and corners seldom explored by those who do not claim to be tariff experts. They learned many interesting things not generally known. They became aware of the fact, for example, that some of our captains of industry do not hesitate to "beat" the tariff laws, if they can do so.

The new congressmen learned—to cite one specific instance of the kind—that the treasury department not long ago was compelled to decide that a "rail of steel" is not a "steel rail." The decision was brought about by the discovery that certain importers were bringing into this country the finest kind of high-speed steel made up into the form of rails. Instead of paying the rates for fine grades of steel, they were paying the low duties on ordinary rail steel. The matter was settled by ruling that quality, not form, shall determine whether or not rails of steel are steel rails.

There are other ways of "beating" the law, however. Opium is one of the cases in point. Congress passed a law shutting out opium when prepared for smoking. Crude opium, nevertheless, is still admitted to our ports, and that is why there is plenty of "smoking opium" in the market today, for those who know how to get it. It did not take the importers very long to learn that they could make a smokable article out of the crude stuff. Not including the Chinese, it is said there are nearly 100,000 habitual opium smokers in this country, most of them now smoking the "makeshift dope," which, it is claimed, is far more dangerous than the purer brand excluded by law.

Absinthe, the French "dope" drink, was shut out recently under the law which forbids the importation of foods and drinks injurious to health. Dealers, it is rumored, are preparing to wink at the law. Experiments have shown that a fair substitute for absinthe can be made from oil of worm wood. The fake absinthe will be sold as the real thing, it is said, to all who feel that they must have their favorite stimulant.

Cigars in quantities less than 3,000, our future law makers learned, are refused admittance to our ports of entry. No one could give them a reason for this rule. A veteran clerk of the treasury department thought the rule dated back to Civil war days. He presumed that cigar dealers along the border, who were anxious to exclude competition from Canadian sources, might have had a hand in framing the enactment.

The reason for shutting out the eggs of game birds caused no end of comment. The regulation governing these eggs, it appears, had its origin in a remarkable myth which was to the effect that millions of eggs of wild ducks, geese, and other wild fowl, were annually gathered in Alaska and also in the British possessions and shipped over the Canadian Pacific railroad to points on the east, where they were manufactured into egg albumen for use by bakers and confectioners and for other purposes.

The simple truth is that no industry of the kind ever existed. Investigation has proved, the congressmen were told, that not a single shipment of eggs of ducks or other wild fowl was ever forwarded over the Canadian Pacific railroad. The whole story, it is asserted, was an invention from beginning to end. In 1902, however, an amendment was adopted permitting eggs to come in "for propagating purposes only." Otherwise the law stands as originally passed.

TOOK TOO MUCH FOR GRANTED

How Sir Andrew Clarke, by Hasty Prescription, Taught Patient to Smoke.

The late Sir Andrew Clarke was so ardent in his crusade against over-eating and overdrinking, and so firm in his belief that in a large majority of cases diet would do far more than drugs, that he was a little too much inclined to take it for granted that his patients were self-indulgent to the ruin of their health. Among the many anecdotes to which his views gave rise the following is one of the most amusing:

A patient came to consult him, and was at once overwhelmed with directions on the subject of the life he should lead and the diet to which he should adhere. "Now, remember, only one glass of wine at each meal," the physician concluded, "and just one cigar after dinner won't hurt you Good morning. Be sure you keep strictly to one cigar."

"One cigar!" said the patient. "But—" "My dear sir," broke in Sir Andrew, somewhat testily, "I must insist. If I am to treat you, you must follow my directions. I know quite well you will find it hard, but it is absolutely necessary for your health."

The patient heaved a deep sigh. "All right, Sir Andrew. Since you insist, I will do my best. Good morning."

He went his way, but his health did not improve, and at the end of a few weeks he returned to the physician's consulting room.

"No better?" said the doctor, surprised. "But have you followed all my directions?"

"Absolutely," replied the visitor. "I must admit that the cigar was rather hard work at first, and in fact it made me feel ill, but I soon got used to it, and now I rather like it."

"Good heavens!" said Sir Andrew, on whom the truth dawned; "do you mean to tell me—"

"Yes, I had never smoked before,"—London Telegraph.

Education.

While the drift of our modern life in the outside world may be toward technical and scientific education, the drift in college is still toward the great teacher—the man of thought-provoking power and of spiritual capacity; sincere and genuine both in scholarship and manhood, of whom one can speak, as Carlyle spoke of Schiller, "a high ministering servant at Truth's altar, and bore him worthy of the office he held."—The Century.

How to Fly Old Glory.

Some of the people who fly the flag from their residences or places of business do not seem to know, according to an old soldier, the respect that is due to Old Glory. The rule in the army and navy is that the Stars and Stripes are never flown after sunset, nor before sunrise, and civilians are supposed to observe this, though there is no law to make them do so. As a matter of fact, some flags are kept up all night.

Damage by Lightning.

Lightning does most damage in level, open country. A town or city, with its numerous projections and wires, is comparatively exempt.
